

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

Confederate States, by Milledge L. Bonham, Jr.; The Judicial Interpretation of the Confederate Constitution, by Sidney D. Brummer; Southern Legislation in Respect to Freedmen, 1865-1866, by J. G. deRoulhac Hamilton; Carpet-Baggers in the United States Senate, by C. Milledred Thompson; Grant's Southern Policy, by Edwin C. Woolley; The Federal Enforcement Acts, by William Watson Davis; Negro Suffrage in the South, by W. Roy Smith; Some Phases of Educational History in the South Since 1865, by William K. Boyd; The New South, Economic and Social, by Holland Thompson; The Political Philosophy of John C. Calhoun, by Charles Edward Merriam; Southern Political Theories, by David Y. Thomas; Southern Politics Since the Civil War, by James W. Garner.

THE POLICE CONTROL OF THE SLAVE IN SOUTH CAROLINA. A Dissertation Submitted to the Faculty of Vanderbilt University in Partial Fulfilment of the Requirements for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy. By H. M. Henry, M. A., Professor of History and Economics in Emory and Henry College, Emory, Va., 1914, pp. x, 216, with Appendix of Documents and index.

This is a very valuable study of one of the phases of slavery.

CHISHOLM GENEALOGY. Being a Record of the Name from A. D. 1254. With Short Sketches of Allied Families. By Wm. Garnett Chisholm, LL.D., Member of Society of Colonial Wars. The Knickerbocker Press, New York, 1914, pp. iv, 94.

This is a carefully prepared and beautifully printed account of the well-known South Carolina Family of the name, which traces its ancestry to a distinguished Scotch family. Included are brief notices of a number of allied Scottish families and of the American names of Schiefflin, Laurens, Prioleau, Hext, Edings, Rogers, Muhlenberg, Lawrence, Hamersley, Bryan, Legare, Swinton, Ball, Garnett, Mercer, Willis, Bachman, De Saussure and Middleton.

THE MARYLAND CALENDAR OF WILLS. Wills from 1713 to 1720. Compiled and Edited Jane Baldwin (Jane Baldwin Cotton) and Roberta Bolling Henry. Volume IV. Kohn & Pollock, Inc., Publishers, Baltimore, Md., 1914, pp. 240, lxvi, with full index.

All genealogists will welcome this new volume in Mrs. Cotton's admirable series.

CARTER FAMILY OF NORTH CAROLINA, DESCENDANTS OF ROBERT CARTER OF BERTIE COUNTY. By Carolyn Agnes Foster (Mrs. Edgar M. Marburg) Member of the National Society of Colonial Dames of America [&c]. Whittet & Shepperson, Printers, Richmond, Va. [1914], pp. 40, with illustrations.

A carefully prepared account of one of the branches of the family of Major Thos. Carter, of Lancaster Co., Va., which removed to North Carolina.

BATES ET AL OF VIRGINIA AND MISSOURI. Onward Bates His Book.

Printed for Private Distribution, Chicago 1914, pp. 160.

This old Virginia family has spread widely and produced a number of distinguished men, among them, Frederick Bates, Governor of Mo., and Edward Bates, Attorney General of the United States. Mr. Bates has not only traced the descendants of the emigrant in male and female lines; but has printed a large number of interesting old letters, etc. The author has done his work in a most thorough way.

HOW TO TEACH AMERICAN HISTORY. A Handbook for Teachers and Students. By John C. Wayland, Ph. D., Professor of History and Social Science, State Normal School, Harrisonburg, Va. New York, The MacMillan Company, 1914, pp. 349, with index.

Dr. Wayland, who has already done most excellent work in the field of local history, discusses at length in this valuable book, two questions, why study history and how to study history. From his own experience and a wide knowledge of the methods of others, he has been able to produce a work alike valuable to teachers and students. Nothing can be made of greater interest and value than historical studies, and nothing is oftener made dull and unprofitable. Dr. Wayland's book will be most helpful as an aid in causing one result and avoiding the other. Of course the professional teacher must be the best judge of its merits as affecting his own work.